TOGETHER FIRST
A global system that works for all

Yes	International Peace Institute	Yes
Unknown risks	Conflict or political violence	Short
Global catastrophic risks mitigated	Risk multipliers managed	Implementation timeframe

The proposing to create [illegible] requirement by which the Security Council is informed of the operational implications on a peacekeeping mission

[illegible] not

https://www.gao.gov/assets/690/689900.pdf

[illegible] peacekeeping

[illegible] to carry out the tasks outlined in their mandates.

[illegible] with heres-how-we-tabulated-this/

[illegible] Security Council

https://www.securitycouncilreport.org/atf/cf/%7B65BFCF9B-6D27-4E9C-8CD3-

[illegible] Supplied Council the CF6E4FF96FF9%7D/research_report_council_mandating_february_2019.pdf

[illegible] what a mission should or should not achieve.

[illegible] Security Council is [illegible] the Fifth Committee [illegible]

https://www.nytimes.com/2017/03/24/world/united-nations-peacekeeping-trump-administration.html

[illegible] NGO Service as a model for further https://civiliansinconflict.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/01/BaseClosurePrint_Web.pdf

[illegible] Security Council

[illegible] Security Council

https://civiliansinconflict.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/10/CIVIC_PKReport_Final2_Web-2.pdf

[illegible] the Fifth

[illegible] Committee [illegible] could

[illegible] Committee could

[illegible] Secretariat, via a formal letter to the president of the Security Council following the [illegible] paper helped keep the peacekeeping budget envelope relatively intact.

https://undocs.org/S/PRST/2009/24

[illegible] could present the approved mission budgets, identify reductions against the

[illegible] Committee

https://undocs.org/S/PRST/2009/24

[illegible] and, where necessary, adjust the scope of mandates based on realities on the ground. Within the Fifth Committee, it could encourage delegates to make more informed decisions about budget levels and operational tradeoffs.